MARC ACSM invites ALL researchers to submit their research abstracts for our 2024 MARC-ACSM Annual Meeting Lancaster, PA. Abstract submissions will open June; detailed submission guidelines can be found here on the MARC ACSM website. Our goal is to notify authors about acceptance within two-weeks after submission. To encourage more student submissions, the MARC Research Committee will be featuring tips on writing successful abstracts, how to create engaging posters and slide presentations, and on preparing for a great presentation. If you have questions about your submission or the submission process please contact Research Committee chair, Chris Harnish, PhD at crharnishphd@gmail.com.

MAKE YOUR MARC...on the Research Committee!

The MARC Research Committee is accepting applications to serve on the 2024-2026 Research Committee. Responsibilities of committee members include:

- Advocate for submission of abstracts in your home state/region.
- Evaluate abstracts prior to the MARC ACSM annual meetings.
- Review possible MARC ACSM grants.
- Judge at least ONE award presentation session at the MARC ACSM annual meetings.
- Score the poster session at the MARC ACSM annual meetings.

Committee members are typically asked to:

- Serve as a session moderator for a student presentation awards session.
- Attend the Research Committee dinner meeting at the MARC-ACSM annual meeting on Friday.
- Attend the MARC-ACSM annual meeting Saturday award ceremony.

Interested parties are asked to complete the application survey no later than July 1, 2024. For questions, please contact Chris Harnish, Committee Chair, at crharnishphd@gmail.com

WILLIAM PATERSON UNIVERSITY
Will. Power.

William Paterson University's fully online graduate programs—with rolling admissions, numerous start dates available, and flexible course loads—are ideal for working professionals. These 36-credit programs have a full-time option that runs 18 months, and a part-time option that runs 24 months. Students are required to complete either an internship/fieldwork experience or a thesis.

MS in Exercise Physiology, ONLINE
This program prepares students to become outstanding, ethical practitioners in various settings: clinical, sport specific, professional sports, community health and wellness, corporate fitness, sport and recreation, school-based athletics, and personal training.

MS in Sport Administration, ONLINE
Students with or without a sport management background will hone skills related to the leadership, marketing, facility management, and evaluation of sport-related organizations within professional and minor league athletics, community sports and recreation, and school-based programs.

Still working on your bachelor's?
William Paterson University also offers 4+1 bachelors-to-masters options, allowing students to substitute select undergraduate courses with graduate-level ones, which results in students earning a bachelor's degree and then the master's degree in 5 years total.
